Name: Ibrahim Eldesouky Awadallah Tawfik
Faculty: Institute of Educational Studies & Research
Dept.: Foundations of Education
Degree: Ph.D.

Title of Thesis: Developing Scientific Research in Egyptian Universities in the Light of Knowledge Economies Demands "Future Vision"

Supervisors: Prof. Motaz Khorshid
Prof. Sami Mohammed Nassar

Abstract:

The thesis aimed to provide a future vision for the development of scientific research in universities in the light of the requirements of the knowledge economy, and by introducing some of the options for the future or possible scenarios or possible or desirable to plan this kind of education and foreseeing the future to take into account the reality of scientific research at Egyptian universities. The research used the descriptive method, and systematically exploring the future of scientific research in universities through the use of Egyptian the future scenarios by using Michel Godet, methodology .. The thesis found many of the results, the most important of which put the target scenario of the four stages of the development of scientific research in the Egyptian universities in the light of the requirements of the knowledge economy.

Keywords:

Scientific Research; Universities; Knowledge Economies; Futurology.